The Circle of The Baal Shem Tov: Studies in Hasidism
ABRAHAM J. HESCHEL (edited by Samuel H. Dresner)
Written by one of the most distinguished Judaic scholars of the twentieth century, these essays present portraits of four figures in the inner circle of the Baal Shem Tov who founded the Hasidic movement in the early eighteenth century. Based largely on Heschel's painstaking research of archival manuscripts and his sensitivity to the oral traditions that he was privy to, the essays constitute an invaluable contribution to the understanding of early Hasidism.
